Two die in crash

MRS. KATHLEEN FIELDS

JOHN C. FIELDS

The wife and 3-year-old son of Madison County Sheriff's Deputy John J. "Jack" Fields, a former Venice resident, were killed, and Fields and his 7-year-old daughter were among five persons injured in a three-car accident on Route 162 one-half mile west of Lake Drive at 5:10 p.m. yesterday.

Mrs. Kathleen Ann Fields, 29, and John Christopher Fields Jr., 3, were pronounced dead upon arrival at St. Elizabeth Hospital at 6:05 p.m. yesterday. Fields, his wife and his son had to be cut out of their Volkswagen by the Long Lake Volunteer Fire Department Rescue Squad.

A daughter, Colleen Fields, 7, was thrown out of the car and was scheduled to be released from the hospital today after treatment for a head injury, a cut to her side and a bump to her forehead.

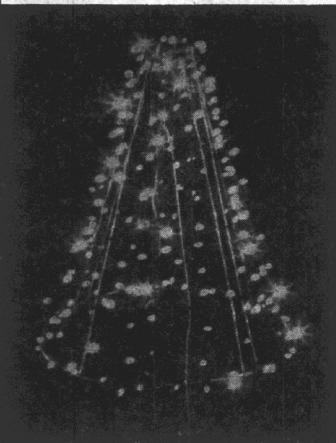

According to official reports, Fields' auto was westbound on Route 162 when the westbound auto of Michael Krauskopf, 22, of 2820 Dale Ave., passed it. Krauskopf's auto turned back into the westbound lane suddenly due to oncoming traffic and the two westbound autos collided.

Fields' car went out of control, left the roadway, tipped on its side and struck a tree, the top of the car wrapping around the tree all the way to the frame.

Krauskopf's auto also went out of control and swerved into

Ailing woman's Yule dream fulfilled today

By VALERIE EYENDE

Press-Record Staff Writer
"I've thought about doing something for our elderly citizens for several years. This year, I decided it was time to do it."

Mrs. Richard (Doris) Jones, 4145 Highway 111, really has done something about her desire to remember senior residents at Christmastime and her comments were in explanation.

Her planning and labors of the past three or four months have been fruitful, resulting in her assembling 122 gifts for presentation at 2 p.m. today at Colonial Haven Nursing Home.

The private citizen and goodwill ambassador will wear a Santa Claus suit to make the rounds of the facility today. She will stop for longer visits with five patients who are not expecting any visitors at Christmastime.

Since learning of the five elderly patients, she is planning to expand her visits to the residents without families on a monthly basis in 1977.

Mrs. Jones is a recovered cancer patient, who had extensive surgery in April, lasting eight hours.

"I feel terrific now and I believed this was the year I should fulfill the idea I've had for several years, but never gotten around to doing," she explained.

She is a former dietary aide in the Dietary Department at St. Elizabeth Hospital. "I had to leave the job about four years ago after suffering a heart attack, followed by blood clotting complications," Mrs. Jones said.

She discovered she had cancer earlier this year and underwent the necessary surgery shortly afterward.

Mrs. Jones began her Santa Claus project alone, but soon found herself being assisted and supported by her mother-in-law, Mrs. Jessie Jones, 79, of Granite City.

"My mother-in-law died on Dec. 15, but I felt I must keep on with the project as she had shown such an interest and had planned to make the visit to the nursing home with me," Mrs. Jones said.

Drive short

Contributions to the Salvation Army's "Tree of Lights" appeal today stands at $19,247, still $5,753 short of this year's $25,000 goal, Richard "Dick" Kerch, campaign chairman, announced this morning.

The amount of donations has illuminated 770 bulbs on the symbolic "Tree of Lights," located in Nameoki Village Shopping Center, opposite Lindell Blvd.

A total of 1,000 bulbs must be lighted to signify the annual fund-raising drive is successful.

Checks still may be mailed to: Salvation Army, P.O. Box 338, Granite City, Ill. 62040.

"We need to reach our goal to cover the expenses of this Christmas season," Captain Michael Tompkins, Salvation Army commander said.

Nearly 900 families will be aided through the "Tree of

May see fire hall

A proposal to obtain an appraisal of the city's Nameoki Fire station at 3900 Nameoki Road, with a view toward public sale of the building, was approved by the City Council in a regular meeting Tuesday night.

The proposal was made by Alderman Sam Whitmer of the Second Ward who had voiced earlier objections to reports that the building might be used as a branch library and a Granite City museum.

Several aldermen protested the suggestion of a public sale and said the building, one of the oldest in the Nameoki area, should be preserved as a Granite City landmark.

Roy Paulos, alderman of the Third Ward, told the council that he believes "We should keep this building or possibly dedicate it to some public use."

Alderman Emerald Dawes of the Seventh Ward said that the building holds sentimental value for him because he has lived in the area of the fire station all of his life. He noted that the fire station was built by volunteers of the old Nameoki Fire Department and that it has given long and active service to the Nameoki area.

"I'd like to see us keep the station as a monument of Nameoki," Dawes said.

Whitmer replied, however, that "This is public property. It's not ward property or a sentimental item. We should get what the building is worth."

Steve Bassarich, alderman of Ward Five, said the matter should be referred to the City

Songs tell history and traditions

(102nd of a Bicentennial year Press-Record series)

Most Quad-Cityans appear to enjoy reading about the history of their community and state. And the U.S. Bicentennial observance has served as a catalyst, sparking even greater interest in the past.

Those who do not enjoy reading Illinois history could try singing it. The state's history can be told through songs and music, and the following selections would constitute an exciting long-playing record, historians say.

The record could begin with music from the Indian tribes that once occupied the Illinois country.

Indians observed major

Award contract

A contract for construction of a proposed new Granite City Town Hall and senior citizens center at a total cost of $639,949 was awarded by the Town Board Tuesday night to S. M. Wilson Co. of Granite City.

Council members voted unanimously in favor of the contract award after Mayor Paul Schuler noted that the township already is behind in its schedule for construction of the building, and that any further delay in awarding a contract possibly could cost the township a considerable amount of money.

The S. M. Wilson Co. was awarded the contract on a bid which includes all of the work—general construction, electrical, heating and plumbing installations—although specifications had been prepared for base bids on general construction with separate bidding for the electrical, heating and plumbing work.

Some aldermen noted that computation of the bids showed that the $639,949 by the S. M. Wilson Co. covering all phases of the work was $15,397 higher than another bid made up of an offer by the Wilson firm to do the general construction work only, plus bids by three other contractors for the electrical, plumbing and heating work. That bid totaled $624,552.

Alderman Curtis Blevins of the Fifth Ward and chairman of the council's building committee, explained that after the bids were computed, Wilson notified the architect, Henry Gabriel, that he was withdrawing the bid for general construction work alone which had the effect of killing the original low bid of $624,552.

This left Wilson's combined bid for all work at $639,949 as

New Madison tavern hours

The Madison City Council Tuesday night enacted by a 7-3 vote an amendment to the ordinance controlling the sale of liquor.

The amendment now bans the sale of liquor after 1:45 a.m. on Monday through Friday and 2:45 a.m. on Saturday and Sunday, and provides that everyone except employees must be out of the establishments within 15 minutes after the sale of liquor has stopped.

The amendment allows liquor to be sold for an extra hour on Dec. 24, 25, 31 and Jan. 1.

The bill was introduced by Second Ward Alderman Richard Kismar and seconded by Second Ward Alderman Donald Broyles.

Fifth Ward Alderman Donald Garrett objected, noting that the amendment was taking 15 minutes a day from the tavern owners as the ordinance before the amendment allowed the sale of liquor until 2 a.m. and 3 a.m. Garrett claimed the council had asked at the last meeting for an ordinance to be drawn up stopping sale at 2 a.m. and 3 a.m., with a 15-minute period after sales had stopped to allow tavern owners to get the patrons to leave.

The amendment as passed reduces the sale of liquor over a year's period by 87 hours. One alderman projected that based on $50 per hour income, the 31 establishments could face a loss of income of $134,850 a year.

Voting against the amendment were Aldermen Ray

Fehling Rd. parking limit

In response to complaints of traffic congestion along Fehling Road, particularly during high school athletic events, the Granite City council Tuesday night banned parking in that area in an action that is expected to offer a serious problem to school authorities.

An ordinance enacted by a 12-1 vote establishes a no parking zone on the east side of Fehling Road from State Street to Nameoki Road, and a similar parking ban on the west side of Fehling Road between Bradley Avenue and Nameoki Road.

Only one council member objected to the measure. Alderman Sam Whitmer of the Second Ward said that elimination of parking around the South High School athletic fields, while permitting parking in residential areas along the west side of Fehling between Bradley and State Street is unfair.

"I consider this very poor traffic control," Whitmer said. Whitmer is chairman of the City Council's traffic committee.

Glad Christmas Tidings

To Our Friends and Citizens of Madison

As the New Year approaches we are happy to extend Holiday Greetings to our friends and the Citizens of Madison and show our appreciation for the good will and joy they have shared with us during the past year.

We hope the true spirit of the Christmas season, its joy, its beauty, its hope and above all, its abiding faith may live among us and that the blessing of peace be ours, and the peace to build and grow, to live in harmony and to plan for the future of Madison with confidence.

We hope and pray that the New Year will be greater, better and brighter for everyone and always remember Life is worth the living if we make it so. We would like to close with our favorite thought, "Peace comes to the Peacemaker, and comfort to those who comfort others.

Offer tree seedlings and wildlife plants

Landowners in the area are being reminded to place orders for seedlings and wildlife plants early from the Illinois Department of Conservation, Division of Forestry. Varied seedling species are available at prices ranging from $10 to $15 per 500.

Six different packets containing combinations of species are also available, with prices ranging from $8 to $15. Jim Menzie, regional forester, said that "orders are coming in regularly and about 50 per cent of the seedlings are already sold."

Trees and shrubs purchased from state tree nurseries may be used only for purposes of establishing new forests and shelter belts or improving existing forests, as game food and cover, and for control of soil erosion.

The seedlings cannot be used for ornamental, shade tree or landscape purposes, and they cannot be removed or resold with the roots attached.

Tree species available are black locust, black walnut, black walnut seed, jack pine, black cherry, red cedar, red pine, ash, red gum, red oak, sycamore, tulip poplar, white oak, cypress, loblolly pine, white pine and Scotch pine, both Spanish and French strains.

Wildlife plants include autumn olive, gray dogwood, bush honeysuckle, black alder, gray dogwood, multiflora rose and lespedeza.

The packets and their compositions are Southern Wildflower-white pine, pin oak, autumn olive, dogwood, pecan; Songbird--gray dogwood, autumn olive, honeysuckle, red cedar; Southern Pine--white pine, loblolly pine; Walnut--100 black walnut.

Order blanks may be obtained from any state district forester or county extension officer or from the Region V Conservation Headquarters, P.O. Box D, Benton 62812 (telephone 435-8138) or Region IV Conservation Headquarters, 24 W. Broadway, Alton 62002 (462-1181).

Fewer job-related injuries, illnesses

Job-related injuries and illnesses declined in 1975, according to a survey newly released by the U.S. Labor Department's Bureau of Labor Statistics.

The survey, based on reports submitted during 1976 by employers in the private economy, also shows that the incidence rate—the number of injuries and illnesses per 100 full-time workers—dropped from 10.4 in 1974 to 9.1 in 1975.

Of this 1.3 drop in the all-industry incidence rate, about 0.2 may be attributable to a disproportionate drop in manufacturing and contract construction employment from 1974 to 1975. Both of these industries have had relatively higher rates of injuries and illnesses than the rest of the private economy.

The incidence rate for 1975 indicates that, on the average, one out of every 11 workers experienced a job-related injury or illness, compared to the rate of one out of 10 for 1974.

The following are some key results:

Total occupational injuries dropped by 896,000—from 5.7 million to 4.8 million—a decline of 15 per cent. About 30 per cent of this drop—270,000—was due to the decrease in the hours worked from 1974 to 1975.

The number of injury cases involving lost worktime declined about 171,000—from 1.54 million to 1.37 million—a decline of 19 per cent.

The number of work-related fatalities as measured by the survey dropped 10 per cent, from 5,900 in 1974 to 5,300 in 1975.

Nearly 29.8 million workdays were lost due to work-related injuries during 1975—down from 30.2 million in 1974.

or slightly more than one per cent. However, translated into a rate per 100 fulltime workers, the rate moved from 83.1 lost workdays for every 100 workers in 1974 to 84.4 in 1975.

Nearly 85 per cent of all lost-time involved time away from the work site, the remaining five per cent involved days of restricted work activity only.

About 28 per cent of the lost workday cases involved a duration of 15 days or more.

Burned-out house looted

An undetermined amount of clothing and bed linens were stolen from a burned-out house at 2481 Ohio Ave., between noon Friday and 3:10 p.m. Monday and the thieves left a note scratched on the front door stating they would be back. Entry was believed gained by crawling through a second-floor window.

Jerry Gibson, who formerly resided in the house and now lives at 2883 Route 3, told police many other items of his were stacked by the front door, as though the burglars intended to take them later.

He said it was difficult to determine what had been stolen because everything was out of place due to the fire, but estimated the missing linens and clothing were valued at about $60.

Late Chicago mayor praised

Chicago Mayor Richard J. Daley, regarded as perhaps the last of the "big city political bosses," was buried yesterday after being praised as a religious man and as "our first and our best" citizen. He died Monday afternoon of a sudden heart attack.

Mayor Daley, 74, had been elected to a sixth consecutive four-year term as mayor in 1975. His successor may be chosen next week.

State Senator Sam M. Vadalabene told the Press-Record, "He was a great public servant and a leader in the Democratic Party whose achievements will be long remembered in history. More important, however, he was a man that he was devoted to God and his family."

"To the end of his life, he never forgot the simplicity of his beginnings. To have been able to work together with him for the good of the State of Illinois was an honor to me. To have worked with his son, Richard, in the Senate proved to me that he was a father who passed his best along to his son."

"The nation, the state and Chicago suffer a deep loss with Mayor Daley's departure from the scene. I offer my deepest condolences to his family and to the millions of Americans who have benefited so much from his dedication."

President-elect Jimmy Carter, who attended the Daley funeral, said, "He was a good man, a man who loved his family and the people of Chicago."

President Gerald Ford called Mr. Daley "a towering figure who will be long remembered by the people of Chicago, Illinois and the nation."

Congressman Melvin Price of this district called him "the greatest municipal leader in the country. He ran the best organized city in the U.S."

Madison County Board Chairman Nelson Hagnauer, county Democratic leader, said Mayor Daley was "an outstanding leader who was always looking out for the good of the city and its residents."

U. S. Senator Adlai Stevenson said that "his loyalties were fierce and his virtues old-fashioned. He rose at dawn each day to serve the public, his party and his family—as unselfish a man as I have ever known—a rare public servant and a friend."

U. S. Senator Charles H. Percy commented that Mr. Daley "loved and built the city of Chicago in a way making it the envy of every major metropolitan area. He was utterly fair and courteous to those who opposed him, and was nonpartisan in building a better and greater Chicago, while also being a fiercely partisan Democrat."

State Treasurer Alan J. Dixon cited the late mayor as "an extraordinary family man, a great mayor and one of the most influential political leaders ever."

Blood needs climb as leukemia, cancer patients fight disease

(The first of a three-part feature concerning free blood availability to all: distribution of blood to area hospitals; and collection, processing and research into future usage of blood in preventive medicine at the Missouri-Illinois Regional Red Cross Blood Center, St. Louis.)

By VALERIE EVENDEN
Press-Record Staff Writer
The Red Cross Blood Program is gearing up for the Christmas and New Year's holiday by planning a blood drive next week with Church Women United of the Quad-City area to be held at St. Elizabeth Catholic Church, Johnson and Ponton Roads.

The blood drive will take place Monday, Dec. 27, Tuesday, Dec. 28, and Wednesday, Dec. 29, from 2 p.m. to 6:45 p.m. on all three days. "What's all the fuss about?" may be the question asked each time the Red Cross Blood Program puts out a plea to donor groups to sponsor bloodmobiles around a three-day holiday.

"Why do they ask for blood donations right in the middle of the Christmas and New Year's festivities?"

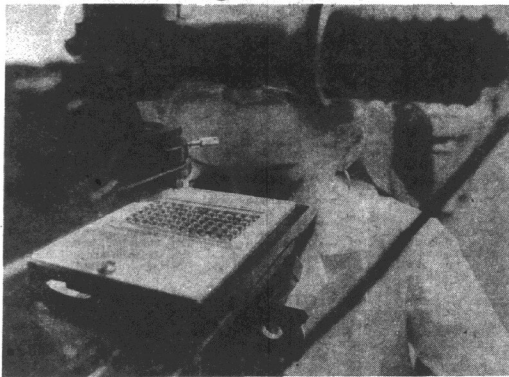

The fuss is about platelets. A blood platelet is a plunger and absolutely vital to life.

It cannot be manufactured by the bodies of leukemia and cancer patients undergoing chemotherapy, because the drugs which fight these diseases cannot distinguish between healthy tissue and the unhealthy tissue they are used to destroy.

"The most important factor about platelets is they must be transplanted to the leukemia and cancer patient within 72 hours after their production."

A three-day weekend is 72 hours. This period eliminates the production of many platelet units that will be crucially needed during the first few days of the week following a holiday.

"That's why it is imperative

to reach out to our good friends—the blood donors—during the holidays," explained Miss Jill Hadden, director of Donor Resources and Development for the Missouri-Illinois Red Cross.

"To better understand the new blood program, which enables almost everyone within a 250-mile radius covered by 167 hospitals, large and small, to get free blood, a tour was made of the Missouri-Illinois Regional Red Cross Blood Center, 4050 Lindell Blvd., St. Louis.

The visit afforded a unique insight into the processing of platelets and disclosed the pressing needs of those ill with cancer and leukemia for the vital pluggers.

Perhaps most amazing was the discovery how the gift of one pint of blood from one healthy donor can be miraculously transformed into components used to treat many sick people, whose lives may depend on receiving their portion of that donor's blood.

The Missouri-Illinois Regional Red Cross Blood Center is an imposing building, housing the most modern research laboratories, blood donor facilities, administrative and records offices, distribution (shipping) area, refrigeration units, storage areas, testing sections and still more testing facilities.

The entire complex is dedicated to meeting the daily and frequently the hourly blood needs requested by all of the 167 hospitals it now serves, whether it's St. Elizabeth Hospital in Granite City or Barnes Hospital in St. Louis.

Its staff of skillful researchers, technical people, shipping crews and administrative personnel is devoted to collecting, processing, cataloging and distributing blood.

"Our goal is to produce 150 platelets of blood per day and to meet those needs of people unfortunate to need blood," Miss Hadden said.

"We know the demand will be there. It is a life and death need and nothing can replace it when needed."

The director likened the center to a manufacturing company. "But, it is unique from any other company or any other manufacturer. You can't press a button and get blood, nor can you force anyone to be a donor."

"The only place you can get it is from human beings. You and I manufacture a product, but we can't be forced to give it up. So, getting the blood needed by others is an endless battle," Miss Hadden said.

7 to 10 years for robberies

Four local men have been sentenced or fined in Madison County Circuit Court at Edwardsville for local crimes. Robert Miller Jr., 34, Kirkpatrick Homes, has been sentenced by Circuit Judge Moses Harrison II to serve two concurrent seven-to-10-year prison sentences for two robberies. Miller pleaded guilty Nov. 16 to the two robbery charges.

One alleged he was hitchhiking and received a ride from Herbert Battles, Cahokia, July 28, and then displayed a gun, forced Battles to drive him into the Mitchell area where Battles was tied up, gagged, and with a shotgun, he robbed of his car and other items.

The other robbery charge alleges he robbed Mrs. Sue Williams, owner of Blume's women's clothing store in Edwardsville July 30 at the store, taking about $70 cash. Charles J. Matthews, 47, of 307 Weaver St., Venice, has been sentenced by Circuit Judge Harold Clark to serve two to six years in prison for two counts of drug violations. He allegedly delivered heroin to persons on May 7 and May 14 and pleaded guilty to both charges.

Harold Dunnivant, 2509 Troy Ave., Madison, was sentenced to serve two years of probation after pleading guilty to a burglary. Sept. 11 of an Northwestern Railroad train. Also in circuit court, Robert L. Bruzaitis, 4028 Gaslight Walk, Pontoon Beach, has been fined $100 plus $30 court costs for disorderly conduct.

Granite City police alleged finding a sawed-off shotgun in a panel truck containing Bruzaitis and two other young men June 27 at 15th and State streets. He first was charged with unlawful use of a weapon, but the charge was reduced Nov. 4 to disorderly conduct.

Hearings to be set

Dispositional hearings are to be set within the next few weeks to determine if two juvenile girls should be remanded to the Illinois Department of Corrections, Juvenile Division, for their alleged presence during the robbery of the Frank J. Riddle home at 1701 Market St., March 31. Mr. Riddle, 59, was fatally shot and his wife, Ann, 49, suffered a gunshot wound.

Associate Judge Edward Ferguson has ruled that a Madisonian is legally a delinquent minor. He heard testimony Dec. 14 in a juvenile hearing. A resident of Venice has pleaded guilty to being legally a delinquent minor.

It will be up to Judge Ferguson to determine if the two girls should be remanded to state juvenile authorities.

Angelo Dwayne Baker, 17, of Madison is serving a 50-to-150-day prison term for Mr. Riddle's murder and for attempted murder of Mrs. Riddle. He was sentenced Oct. 25 after pleading guilty to both charges.

Energy conservation hearings

Ernest Dunwoody, manager of energy conservation and alternate energy for the Illinois Division of Energy, this week announced a public hearing schedule in asserting that "12 per cent of all energy used in Illinois could be saved by 1980, but we will have to prepare a comprehensive plan to achieve this." Hundreds of Illinois consumers will be asked by the state how they think Illinois and its citizens can save at least five per cent of the energy projected to be used by 1980. Under provisions of a new federal act, the Illinois Division of Energy, Department of Business and Economic Development — with the cooperation of the Illinois Energy Resources Commission — will hold hearings during January to discuss a future state energy conservation plan. The program is part of an overall national "energy independence" effort. Each state has been asked by the Federal Energy Administration to prepare an energy conservation plan by March 1977. Illinois consumers will be asked to comment on aspects required by the federal government. They also will be asked for ideas and information about other programs which Illinois might develop and how they could be implemented.

Four new measures must be adopted by Illinois to qualify for federal assistance. They are: lighting efficiency standards for public buildings, programs to improve carpooling and public transportation, government purchasing based on energy standards, and thermal efficiency and insulation requirements for new buildings. The six hearings are scheduled for the following areas:

Jan. 14 — Chicago, Peoples' Gas Auditorium.
Jan. 17 — Peoria, Peoria Public Library.
Jan. 21 — Rockford, Rockford Public Library.
Jan. 24 — Carbondale, Student Center, SIUC.
Jan. 28 — Elmhurst, Elmhurst City Council Chamber, City Hall.
Jan. 31 — Champaign-Urbana

Civic Center.
State Senator John L. Knappel (D-Virginia), chairman of the Illinois Energy Resources Commission, said, "Illinois citizens will have an opportunity to participate in planning for their future in energy conservation. This will be another major step in developing a state energy program."
Sen. John Nimrod (R-Skokie), chairman of the Technical Committee for the Energy Resources Commission, commented, "The possibility of saving five per cent or more of the energy in Illinois is good news. The state's energy conservation feasibility report is an excellent one, and I urge that citizens participate in this series of hearings."

Program for dairymen

By RON CORNWELL
 County Agricultural Adviser

Controlling cattle diseases, feeding before and after calving, and improving reproductive efficiency are some of the topics Madison County dairymen will hear at the Area Dairy Day on Monday, Jan. 10, at the VFW Hall in Trenton. The program will start at 10 a.m. and conclude at 3 p.m.

Jerry Baker, U of I Extension agricultural engineer, is recommending that farmers check their stored grain for mold, heating or musty odors. A simple method for checking odors is to start the aeration equipment and smell the exhaust air. This method requires about five to ten minutes to be sure there has been one complete air change in the bin.

If the temperature is above 120 degrees F., the grain should be removed from the bin and run through the dryer. Dry grain to about 12 to 15 per cent moisture, allow it to cool and place it back in storage.

If the temperature exceeds 150 degrees F. remove the grain immediately. Corn does not burn at 150 degrees F., but such temperatures indicate there may be better areas in the bin which could be smoldering.

The top highest producing herds in Madison County Dairy Herd Improvement Association in November are owned by Becker Farms, Harold and Carl Baumann, Jim Beane, Marvin Sille, Waldo Keilbach, Granada, Henry Zoelzer, Paramount Farm, Inc. Eugene Meffert, and Vernon Hilt.

The herd of Becker Farms was high for the month with 1.77 pounds butterfat per cow per day. The Becker herd of 60 cows averaged 42.3 pounds milk per cow per day with an average butterfat test of 4.21.

The Beef Housing and Equipment Handbook from the Midwest Plan Service has been revised.

The plan book shows how to plan modern beef production facilities. The book covers manure handling, hay and silage handling, and feeding systems from open lot to full slatted confinement. Complete plans are also included for many of the equipment items needed for feeding, handling and fencing.

The new handbook is available from the Madison County Extension office for $2.50.

Amateur radio class offers license test

Interested in becoming a licensed amateur radio operator? A class in amateur radio operating will begin Tuesday, Jan. 18, at 7 p.m. at Belleville Township High School East. The basic education class is offered by the General Studies and Community Services Division of Belleville Area College.

During the first five weeks of the semester, the student will prepare for the novice license test, which is aimed at getting the student "on the air." The test costs $4 and will be given in class by the instructor. It is prepared by the Federal Communications Commission (FCC).

Students will learn Morse code, elementary radio theory and amateur radio regulations. The remainder of the semester will be spent preparing for the technical and general tests, which are the next two licenses available.

There are five levels of licenses, with each level expanding the number of frequencies and amateur operator can use. The most important philosophy in amateur radio operating is service to the community," said Devereaux Murphy, the instructor. "The amateur operator is trained to respond to emergencies."

Murphy, 34, has been an amateur operator since the eighth grade. He holds the highest license in amateur radio operating, that of extra class operator.

A native of Belleville, Murphy has a B.A. degree in mathematics and a B.S. in electrical engineering, both from Washington University. He is a part-time math instructor at Belleville Area College.

He believes "1978 will be an exciting year for the amateur radio operator."

"This is because sun spots, which flare up every 11 years, allow amateur radio operators to communicate worldwide on an unlimited number of channels with five or ten watts of power."

"The amateur radio is a fascinating world and a good motivational factor for students," Murphy said. "Interest in the world and in electronics is stimulated."

Once an amateur radio operator obtains his license, a whole vista of opportunities opens up to him.

The amateur radio operator can specialize in amateur television and can build an amateur TV station. Or the operator can work with a moon bounce, sending radio signals from the earth to the moon and back to earth halfway around the world.

One of the most popular interests, according to Murphy, is handling communication traffic. This sometimes involves a "phone patch" with a foreign country. A phone patch is where the telephone receiver is hooked up with the amateur radio operator's equipment.

Phone patches are legal between the United States and countries with third party agreements, such as most of South America, Central America and Portugal. The phone patches can help link families separated by oceans.

Other amateur radio operators, like Murphy, are members of the Military Affiliated Radio System (MARS). These operators back up communications for the military.

"A whole world of fun and adventure is open to the amateur radio operator," Murphy concludes. For more information concerning the class, Quad-Cityans may contact him at 233-1312.

Venice township ticket endorsed

Representatives of the Madison and Venice city political organizations met jointly Tuesday evening at the Madison fireman's hall following city council meetings in both cities to decide on endorsements for Venice Township election April 5.

Those endorsed were: Christ Pashoff as supervisor, Jerry Maeras as tax collector, Mrs. Margaret Reidelberger as assessor and Marion Gray as township clerk. All are incumbents.

For the board of auditors the group endorsed Earl Mosely and Ben Honorable, both incumbents and Richard Peterson replacing Bill Woodrome who is not seeking re-election, and Gary Novich replacing Albert Topal who also is reported not seeking re-election.

Joe Roberts was endorsed for highway commissioner replacing Frank Kimack who is not seeking re-election.

News notes

About 2,500 employees of the Illinois secretary of state — to retain their jobs — must pass civil service tests, they were notified yesterday. A Dec. 2 court ruling makes them subject to rules of the state Department of Personnel, which is controlled by the governor.

The federal order halting swine flu shots also was intended to ban shots for B-Hong Kong flu, a spokesman said Tuesday. A second Wisconsin swine flu case, a 13-year-old Jefferson County boy, has been tentatively confirmed.

U.S. Environmental Administrator Russell E. Train

this week announced a "clean growth" policy to allow new industry in air-polluted areas if other improvements reduce pollution. He urged Congress and the next administration to take a middle path between unlimited growth and no growth in such areas.

Illinois in 1975 paid more than $50,000 to a Florida man described as a master thief, international confidence man and gun smuggler who provided information on organized crime. The governor's present yearly salary is $50,000.

Secretary of State Michael J. Howlett today extended the deadline for displaying current 1976 passenger car and other calendar year vehicle license plates from Dec. 31 to midnight

Feb. 15.

Illinois Bell expects Christmas Day callers will make a record 15 million interstate telephone calls, about 600,000 of them originating in Illinois, and another 700,000 long-distance calls are likely to be placed within Illinois. Throughout the state, 1,555 long-distance operators and 961 directory assistance operators will be on duty to assist callers on 972,000 calls of all kinds, including 437,000 long-distance calls. Kenneth Evers, local manager, estimates.

The new governor should be able to avoid a tax increase despite legislature overrides on vetoes, outgoing Gov. Daniel Walker predicted this week. He urged "tight budgeting."

Petrillo cites business skill

"As the newest candidate for the office of city treasurer, I feel that the people of Granite City are entitled to know some things about my background and qualifications," Nick Petrillo said today.

"I was born in Granite City and attended both elementary and high school here. For the past 25 years, I have operated a small produce stand — Petrillo's Produce — for which I have always personally done the bookkeeping involved. "Having three sons who also attended local elementary and high schools, I have been and am still active in organizations like the Granite City Boosters Club as well as other youth programs, such as Park District softball for which I sponsor several teams.

"As a small businessman, I am naturally concerned with the administration and affairs of our city government. "I believe my background as a businessman in the community, and my involvement with the organizations, qualify me for the office of city treasurer. "I feel certain that with the help and support of my friends, I could maintain the steady pace of good administration in the treasurer's office which Paul Rutledge, our current city treasurer, achieved during his terms in office."

Holly Girls lead songs

The "Holly Girls" quartet entertained the Granite City Evening Kiwanis club at its meeting in Charlie's Restaurant.

Mrs. Mary Jessie, Mrs. Helen Toundas, Mrs. Mary Peterson and Mrs. Joyce Clark, wives of Kiwanis members, formed the group known as "Holly Girls," sang a selection of Christmas songs and then led the Kiwanians and wives in singing. Special guest at the dinner was Kiwanian John Graham, formerly of Granite City and now living in New Mexico.

The Kiwanians' wives attending the meeting held a gift exchange.

TAVERN BURGLARY An undetermined amount of change was stolen from the coin box of the pool table at Stieb's Tavern, 2422 Nameoki Road. It could not be determined if the burglars hid inside the tavern at closing time or if someone left the rear door unlocked. Unsuccessful attempts were made to pry open the cigarette machine and juke box, damaging both.

Cost emphasis

With steelmakers squeezed to a three per cent profit margin for the past two years — insufficient to arrange financing of major expansion expenditures — emphasis is being placed on cost control, President Robert D. McBride of Granite City Steel said Tuesday.

Addressing a Granite City Rotary luncheon after being introduced by Rotarian Stanley Howlett, he traced the 86-year history of the steel mill through the Niedringhaus, Marshall and Veeder eras.

While continuing its role as a major area employer, the National Steel Corporation subsidiary, nevertheless needs to operate with a smaller staff than in some years despite 1976 production volume that attained higher levels than 1975, the club was told. McBride, a member of the Granite City Rotary Club, was applauded for his interest in local, regional and national concerns.

President Steve Bristol presided.

Four plead guilty

Four Quad-City area residents have pleaded guilty to charges in Madison County Circuit Court at Edwardsville and dates for sentencing have been set.

Mildred A. Harlan, 17, of 1715 Delmar Ave., pleaded guilty to burglarizing American Legion Post 113 at 1825 State St., Aug. 17, and sentencing was set for Jan. 7.

Cassandra Butler, 25, of 307 Weaver St., Venice, pleaded guilty to two charges of unlawful delivery of heroin. She is to be sentenced Jan. 5. She allegedly delivered heroin on two occasions to undercover agents of the Metropolitan Enforcement Group (MEG) this summer and was among a group of persons arrested in a series of arrests coordinated by MEG in October.

Pleading guilty to three charges of delivery of heroin to MEG agents in the same investigation was Allen Jefferson, 27, of 1019 Logan St., Venice; who is to be sentenced Dec. 30.

Steve M. Kovar, 22, of the 2000 block of Edison Ave., pleaded guilty to violating the terms of his probation and is to be sentenced Jan. 21.

Kovar was on probation for a burglary plea stemming from a Nov. 18, 1974, burglary at Key Rexall Drugs, 6 Gaslight Plaza, Pontoon Beach. The probation violation allegedly occurred when he and another youth allegedly were found by Madison officers to be in possession of four large trash bags and two duffel bags full of marijuana in Madison Oct. 14.

Inventions need to be protected

In recent years, many "invention development" companies have come into existence, claiming they can assist individuals in marketing their inventions.

Security officers' training

Washington University's School of Continuing Education and the Association of Professional Security Officers are co-sponsoring a new technical training program for security officers which begins Jan. 31. Applications will be accepted by the School of Continuing Education through Jan. 17.

David Pross, director of planning, research and training for the Association of Professional Security Officers, said the program offers a total concept in security training. The program's objective is to upgrade the security industry by emphasizing basic and specialized training techniques and professionalism.

Pross said the program answers a need for an adequate and comprehensive training program for security personnel in this metropolitan area.

The course consists of a series of eight integrated modules. The modular system of instruction will permit the participation of security trainees with no actual security experience, experienced security officers with limited training, and supervisory security personnel with a need for specialized training.

Individual modules may be taken for individual certification and credit. Certificates of proficiency will be presented to those students who successfully complete each module. One Continuing Education Unit (CEU) will be awarded for each ten hours of classroom work completed.

Module 1, meeting from Jan. 31-Feb. 3, is entitled "Introduction to Security." Other modules include "Basic Security," "Building and Industrial Security" and "Retail Security."

Each of the eight modules varies in number of hours. The price is $5 per hour of instruction.

The contact for information or an application form is Mrs. Marilyn S. Pryor, Washington University School of Continuing Education, Box 1099, St. Louis 63130, or telephone 863-0100, Extension 4261.

The Illinois State Bar Association alleged this week that some of these companies—despite consumer protection activities by state and federal authorities and patent lawyers—"prey on actual and would-be inventors."

Certain companies operate by telling virtually every person who comes to them with an idea or invention that it has great merit, the ISBA said.

Many "inventions", while perhaps clever, lack commercial potential and cannot be sold, the State Bar commented. A company might make a presentation to the would-be inventor using one or more employees of the firm having impressive titles, such as director of engineering, director of product licensing, and chairman of evaluation committee, to convey the impression that a number of experts have independently arrived at a favorable evaluation of the invention.

In all too many cases, these companies operate in a manner harmful to the client's rights, the ISBA contends.

For instance, one service offered to a client is the preparation of a brochure about the invention, to be sent to a list of manufacturers who might be interested.

Most manufacturers to whom brochures are sent refuse to accept any ideas in confidence. Once the company transmits the brochure in this non-confidential manner, no one need pay anything to use the idea unless protection is obtained under the patent, trademark or copyright laws.

And the inventor's right to obtain valuable patent protection can be lost through widespread disclosure of the idea, the State Bar Association argues. It recommends that inventors consider the following before any contracts are signed or fees paid to an invention development company:

1. Check the company's "baiting average" to learn what percentage or how many of the total number of clients have made money from their inventions, and ask for names and addresses of their satisfied clients.

2. Check the company's fee to see if it is reasonable in relation to the amount of actual services performed.

Many reputable companies charge only a small initial fee (perhaps $200) and rely primarily on a percentage of royalties or sales price for their income.

This arrangement lets the inventor know the company believes in its ability to market the idea.

3. If the company will handle the idea even though a patent has not been obtained or applied for, be cautious. Most reputable firms will handle only patented or patentable inventions.

4. Has the company offered to prepare a patent application? Preparation of a patent application for another by someone other than a patent lawyer, registered patent attorney or agent is unlawful. If such an offer is made, the company is probably not to be trusted.

"If you feel the least bit uncertain about any development company, call the Better Business Bureau, the Chamber of Commerce, or the Consumer Protection Division of the Illinois attorney general's office," the ISBA says.

The U.S. Patent and Trademark Office recommends that individuals seek professional advice from a patent lawyer or a registered patent attorney or agent at an early stage in connection with any invention. If this is done, many problems can be avoided, it asserts.

BLIND STATE REVENUE OFFICIAL TO RETIRE
One of the most unusual careers in state government will end with the resignation of Willard Lee on Dec. 31. Chief counsel of the Illinois Department of Revenue and considered a leading authority in state tax law, he has served the state since 1942, when he joined the Department of Finance. In 1973, he was made acting director of the Department of Revenue by Governor Daniel Walker. Lee has received many awards for public service during his tenure with the state. He has been blind since being injured in an accident at the age of four.

Luke 2:11... "For unto you is born this day, in the City of David, a saviour, which is Christ, the Lord.

From the cradle to calvary, Jesus Christ was God's message to all humanity. A Saviour is born. Since all have sinned, then all need a Saviour. If we confess our sins, then Christ is faithful and just to forgive us our sins.

He came not to condemn, but to save. He came not to destroy, but to heal. He came that we might have life, and that more abundantly. The gift of God is eternal life. Won't you accept God's gift? Today?

'77 to be heavy bargaining year

Calendar year 1977 will be a heavy bargaining year. At least 4.5 million workers are covered by major collective bargaining agreements that will expire or that permit reopening of wage provisions.

Major agreements are regarded as those covering 1,000 workers or more in the private non-farm economy. Somewhat fewer workers, 4.4 million, were covered by major contract expirations in 1976. Major collective bargaining agreements in the private non-farm economy cover 10.0 million workers. Heaviest negotiating activity will occur between March and September. Key industries in which bargaining will take place include construction, communications, steel and transportation (primarily railroads).

A substantial number of workers will be affected by bargaining in the transportation equipment, food store, apparel and bituminous coal mining industries.

In 1977, at least 4.5 million workers are scheduled to receive deferred wage increases averaging 5.9 per cent, or 42.4 cents per hour, as a result of major settlements negotiated in earlier years.

In 1976, 5.5 million workers received deferred increases that averaged 5.4 per cent. Next year's deferred increases will affect 1.6 million workers in the manufacturing sector and 2.9 million in other industries.

The deferred increases will average 5.6 per cent, or 50.2 cents, in manufacturing and 6.1 per cent, or 49.2 cents, in other industries.

Deferred wage and benefit "packages" increases in 1977 will cover 2.9 million workers and average 5.9 per cent in bargaining units covering 5,000 workers or more. In 1976, these increases averaged 5.1 per cent.

A large number of workers in the construction, transportation and wholesale and retail trade industries will receive deferred wage increases.

In manufacturing, the largest concentration of workers receiving deferred increases is in metalworking—primarily in the electrical machinery and transportation equipment industries—plus apparel and food industries. The average deferred increase in 1977 for workers under contracts containing cost-of-living escalator provisions will be 6.1 per cent. Workers under agreements without such clauses will receive increases averaging 6.3 per cent.

This difference will be narrowed, and possibly offset, however, by cost-of-living adjustments arising from increases in the Consumer Price

Index. Of the 4.5 million workers scheduled to receive deferred increases, more than half are covered by agreements containing cost-of-living clauses. The figures are preliminary. They do not include contracts scheduled to expire after early November 1976. Also excluded are contracts which expired earlier in the year, but where negotiations were continuing. More comprehensive data will be presented in a forthcoming Bureau of Labor Statistics bulletin, "Wage Calendar 1977." Negotiations between the General Motors and Chrysler automobile companies and the United Auto Workers were concluded after the preliminary data in this summary were tabulated. Under these contracts, an additional 500,000 workers are scheduled to receive deferred increases next year. Inclusion of these pay adjustments will reduce the average deferred wage increase for all industries to 5.6 per cent and for workers in manufacturing a 5.0 per cent. Contracts containing cost-of-living clauses currently cover six million, or 60 per cent of all workers under major collective bargaining agreements. Of these, about 3.7 million workers are scheduled to have a least one cost-of-living review in 1976. Many of the remaining 2.3 million workers are covered by agreements expiring in 1977 that do not have a review scheduled next year before contract expiration, or are covered by agreements being renegotiated in late 1976.

Allot motor fuel taxes

Illinois municipalities have been allotted $5,225,293 as their share of motor fuel tax paid into the state treasury during November, according to the Illinois Department of Transportation.

Motor fuel tax funds are allocated monthly to the various municipalities in Illinois for their streets and highways. The counties allocated are computed on the basis of population. Allotments to Quad City area communities included $35,218 to Granite City, $5,939 to Madison and $3,947 to Venice.

Illinois counties also have been allocated $2,903,264 in motor fuel tax funds. Madison County received $116,000.

Allotments to township and road districts totaled $2,661,944, with $33,062 going to units in Madison County.

Pontoon to distribute 1,700 pounds of candy

The generosity of the majority of the Pontoon Beach businessmen and of seven Granite City businessmen have made it possible for Pontoon Beach to purchase 1,700 pounds of candy to be distributed to children in the village tonight.

Mayor Floyd David Moss told the Press-Record this morning. More than $800 was donated by the business community and the village board appropriated another $300 from the general fund for candy to be given away by Santa Claus during his rounds tonight.

Santa, aided in his portrayal by Moss and by Trustee Loren Madison, will appear magically in both the Lakeview Estates and Quiet Valley subdivisions about 5 p.m. today, accompanied by fire equipment and other displays.

After touring those subdivisions, Santa will move to the Gailight Walk Apartments and the Buene Meadows subdivision to distribute candy and give the little ones an opportunity to tell him what they most want under their Christmas trees Saturday morning.

Children are being asked to stay in their homes and watch and listen for the arrival of Santa near their homes.

The tour of the village by Santa is an annual project of the village officials.

'Weeds' mowed neatly

"Well, they looked like weeds."

That was the explanation given Granite City Street Superintendent Lionel Portell after a city weed mow accidentally mowed down 5.1 acres of soybeans owned by Henry Luaders along the railroad tracks near the end of Princeton Drive.

Portell said the city had received numerous complaints of high weeds in and around the area known as "hobo jungle" along the tracks. The city's inspection department issued an order for the city to mow down the weeds while cleaning out the hobo jungle, he said.

Soybeans often grow with weeds between the rows and the mower mistook the soybean field for a field of weeds.

The issue was brought before the Granite City Council Tuesday night and the council voted to pay Luaders for his loss.

Luaders explained he received $1,320 for the soybeans on eight adjoining acres which were not mowed, an average yield of 1100 per acre.

On that basis, the council agreed to pay Luaders $830 for the 5.1 acres destroyed by the mowing. Fourth Ward Aldermen Warren Decatur and Glenn the lowest bid. The next lowest bid included a general construction bid by L. Wolf Co. and other contractors for electrical, plumbing and heating work that totaled $645,180.

The new town hall will be built at 21st Street and Delmar Avenue on the site of the old Central Junior High School. The site was donated to the township by Granite City School District under an agreement by which the township will furnish offices in the new building for the school district's special education program for at least five years.

THIRD ETHNIC DINNER. Ethnic literature students of Mrs. Cynthia Hornell, Mrs. Wendy Kambarian and Miss Helen Volfoff enjoyed ethnic food and dances from ten foreign countries at their third annual potluck dinner in the Granite City High School South cafeteria. Food ranged from Chinese fortune cookies to Yugoslavian jellied pig's feet, and from Hungarian polchinita to German choosie cake. Three of the 75 persons attending included, from the left: Lynn Diak, Marianne Garino and Jo Ellen Borchers. Everyone participated in folk dances from Israel, Greece, Armenia and Macedonia.

County GOP chairwomen named

In a move designed to foster grassroots development of the Republican Party in Madison County, Dr. Edward Ragdale this week announced the appointment of two women to be co-chairwomen of the county GOP.

Mrs. Vernon Schulte of Edwardsville and Mrs. Vic Cook of Alton "have repeatedly shown themselves to be skilled political organizers in their communities," the party chairman said.

"During this past election, Eleanor Schulte and Audrey Cook were both invaluable to me and to the party as well. "In particular, they were instrumental in organizing a successful phone survey campaign sponsored by the Republican National Committee.

"In their new capacity as county republican co-chairwomen, they will serve as my liaison with the various adjunct groups affiliated with our growing party," Dr. Ragdale observed.

"By drawing on the proven talents of these two outstanding Republicans, I feel that the party in Madison County will be able to continue its drive to bring responsible government to the people at the local level."

Filing next week

Opposition for aldermanic posts in six of the seven wards in Granite City and a three-way race for the office of city treasurer was reported today as candidates in the April 5 Granite City municipal and township elections prepared to begin filing nominating petitions on Monday.

The city-township filing period will continue from the Dec. 27 opening date through Jan. 31. Nominating petitions by candidates in both the city and township elections will be received at the office of city clerk Robert Stevens who also is ex-officio town clerk.

Stevens told the Press-Record today that he will begin accepting nominating petitions at the regular opening hour of 8 a.m. at his office Monday.

Two years ago Stevens opened his office at 12:01 a.m. on the first filing day to accommodate a list of candidates waiting outside his office in an effort to get a first place position on the ballot. Candidates are listed on the ballot in the order that they file petitions.

Stevens said that an 8 a.m. starting time is planned this year because he learned the State Board of Elections "would prefer that it be done that way."

A race for the office of mayor also appears certain since incumbent Mayor Paul Schuler and Dan Partney, a Granite City member of the Madison County Board, are both circulating petitions in preparation for filing.

Thus far petitions have been issued to the two potential

Approve permit to move mobile home in Venice

The Venice City Council at its meeting Tuesday night gave tentative approval pending inspection by William E. Griggs, building inspector of a permit requested by Stanley Jones to move a mobile home to 305 Mercedia St.

Mayor William Ebersold appointed Mrs. Barbara Madison and Fred Rump to the Community Development committee.

The council approved the arrest report for November 1976 which showed $532 in fines and a total of 28 arrests.

The meeting was closed with a moment of silent prayer for the late Mayor Richard Daley of Chicago.

City elections also are to be held at Venice, Madison and Pontoon Beach on April 19. Both Madison and Venice voters will elect a mayor, city clerk and city treasurer. Four aldermen will be elected in Venice and five aldermen will be elected in Madison.

Pontoon Beach will elect three trustees, since the village elects its mayor and village clerk in off-years.

Filing for the Venice, Madison and Pontoon Beach elections will open Jan. 10 and continue through Feb. 14.

Christmas programs on TV 9

Celebrate the holidays with Andre Kostelanetz, Richard Kiley, the Mormon Youth Choir, Cinderella, the Nutcracker, Henry VIII, his Six Wives and many others on the "new Nine" beginning this week, a KZXC-TV spokesman has urged.

Richard Kiley's Christmas Celebration from The Cloisters Museum in New York starts the festivities with a musical look at Christmas. The Hofstra University Collegium Musicum performs baroque Yuletide favorites as the program traces traditional Christmas fables. It will be shown 9:30 tonight and at 3 p.m. on Christmas Day.

Andre Kostelanetz will conduct the National Symphony Orchestra in Tchaikovsky's Christmastime classic, "The Nutcracker." British actress Rohan McCullough will recite Ogden Nash's verses, especially for the concert suite on the request of Kostelanetz.

Ballet West of Salt Lake City and the Utah Symphony Orchestra will provide the ballet on Christmas Day at 1:30 p.m.

A stylistic rendition of a 14th Century "mystery play" dramatizing the Bible story of Christmas, from the fall of Lucifer to the birth of Christ, will be presented Christmas Day at 12 noon classic.

A noted radio and TV storyteller, Jean Shepherd, will narrate his nostalgic comedy, "The Phantom of the Open Hearth," about a family living in a Midwest steel town during the 1950s. David Elliott plays Ralph, a high school student dreaming of the biggest day of his life, his senior prom — at 8 tonight and at 9 p.m. Christmas Day.

As a holiday week treat, Channel 9 will present a nine-hour continuous showing of The Six Wives of Henry VIII, a pre-movie regular programming, on Sunday, Dec. 26, from 9:30 a.m. until 6:30 p.m.

To culminate the festivities, a two-part dramatization of "Ballet Shoes," Noel Street's classic children's story, will air at 7 p.m. Monday and Tuesday nights, Dec. 27 and 28. This story, about three orphan girls living in genteel poverty — in a boarding house, occupied by various characters who influence their lives and dreams for a better existence, provides holiday viewing for the whole family.

Music, ballet, drama and comedy will be featured all day on Christmas Day.

Six are charged in felony documents

Six persons have been named in informational documents from the Madison County state's attorney's office alleging felonies, including two women charged with conspiracy, murder and concealment of a homicide.

Susan Rae Mueller, 17, and her mother, Barbara Ann Hammond, 36, both of Rural Route One, Granite City, were named in informational documents alleging they were involved in the fatal shooting of Roscoe William Willman, 43, Greenville, Ill., about mid-August on their farm; that they aided in the concealment of the body in a shallow grave on the farm; and that they conspired with another man in connection with the murder.

Mr. Willman's body was found on the Mitchell area farm Sept. 23 after authorities received confidential information it was buried in a shallow grave. A coroner's jury has ruled the death was due to homicide.

Circuit Judge William Beatty set bond at $50,000 for Susan Mueller and $25,000 for Mrs. Hammond, and they were released after posting the bond. An informational document also has been issued alleging aggravated battery and robbery against Carroll B. Bryant, 34, of 2033 Quincy Ave. It alleges that on Aug. 30 he gave a Madison woman a ride in a car from Madison to Granite City, then choked and struck her while stealing her wristwatch and two rings.

They were among seven persons in this area arrested Oct. 8 in a coordinated series of arrests conducted by MEG officers and local police. Camp posted $20,000 bond and Alice Hicks' bond was set at $5,000.

In Loving Memory of GEORGE STENITZER December 19, 1975 I am home in Heaven, dear ones: Oh, so happy and so bright! In this perfect joy and beauty In this everlasting light All the pain and grief is over. Every restless tossing passed; I am now at peace forever. Safely home in Heaven at last. Did you wonder I so calmly Traveled the valley of the shadow? Oh! but Jesus' love illumined Every dark and fearful glade. And He came Himself to meet me. 32 12 23

In that way so hard to tread; And with Jesus' arm to lean on, Could I have one doubt or dread? Then you must not grieve so sorely. For I love you dearly still; Try to look beyond earth's shadows, Pray to trust our Father's Will. There is work still waiting for you. So must not idly stand; Do it now, while life remains! You shall rest in Jesus' land. When that work is all completed, He will gently call you Home; Oh, the reprieve of that meeting! Oh, the joy to see you come! 32 12 23

Fehling Rd.

In a related ordinance, the council approved the establishment of a traffic stop on State Street for traffic entering Fehling Road, replacing the yield sign that has been at that location.

The action will prohibit parking around the football field and soccer field at the South High School, facilities that also are used by students of Granite City High School North. B. J. Davis, superintendent of schools, said the council's action "came as a surprise to us."

He said the matter will create a parking problem at school games and will have to be considered by the Board of Education.

"I wish the city had made us aware of what it was planning to do so that we could have had some input into the matter," Davis said.

Ronald Veizer, chief of police, said the action was the result of mounting traffic congestion along Fehling Road, particularly during athletic events held by North and South High Schools at the athletic fields.

He said police frequently are called to the area as the result of parking along both sides of the roadway created a serious accident potential.

Veizer said that he understood the Boarders Club of South High School has been considering a plan to backstop an area around the softball diamond just east of the soccer field and said he believes that if this plan were carried out it could provide parking "for up to 500 cars."

Davis said this plan "is a long-range idea" and that it is not being considered for the immediate future. He said use of the site around the softball diamond would involve an area in which a grove of trees is located, and that "I doubt if the board would want these trees removed."

Davis added that he can not immediately foresee a solution to the problem.

"The only thing I can see that will happen will be that those attending games will park in the residential area, on the High School South side of the road, particularly during athletic events held by North and South High Schools at the athletic fields."

Davis said.

Songs

festivals, naming ceremonies, meetings of wizard societies, and memorials. They paid homage to wildlife, with singing and dancing.

For example, "The Buffalo-Head Dance" was dedicated to the animal which provided them a source of life.

It can still be seen and heard at public programs and is available on such records as "Songs and Dances of Great Lakes Indians" (Ethnic Folkways Library, Album F, 1903).

Like subsequent immigrants, early French settlers in Kaskaskia and Cahokia brought their music with them and were ever ready for singing or dancing.

One popular song of the French era was "Le Papillon" (The Butterfly) (The Butterfly the Candle Seeks), employing the words "The butterfly the candle seeks."

"As maids around their beauty fill,

"Burn off his wings, poor butterfly,

"And maids are tangled in a net."

In the 19th Century, promoters of Illinois land began to attract immigrants through tall tales and songs.

One of the latter was "El-a-roy," a typically optimistic and imaginative pioneer ballad whose chorus implored, "Then move your family westward."

"Good health you will enjoy,

"And rise to wealth and honor."

"In the state of El-a-roy!" There were even songs for those attracted out of the state in the 1840s and '50s by the golden possibilities to the west.

That's the theme of "Sweet Betsy from Pike" whose chorus bid "Farewell Pike County,

"Goodbye for awhile,

"We will come back again,

"When we've panned out our pile."

One of the more famous campaign songs came from the Presidential election of 1860.

"Old Abe Lincoln," sung to the tune of the Negro spiritual "Old Gray Mare," began: "Old Abe Lincoln came out of the wilderness, out of the wilderness, out of the wilderness."

"Old Abe Lincoln came out of the wilderness, down in Illinois, down in Illinois, down in Illinois."

Laborers had their own songs, some closely identified with Illinois.

One, by Minnie Marvel of Benton, was "Coal Miners' Life."

Its opening verse enticed: "Oh come all the rich and poor alike,

"Let us hear what you have to say,

"Of the coal miners right to strike."

bought or made 50 gift items on her own.

Earlier this month, however, she found out there were 122 patients at Colonial Haven and she had no way of determining to whom the 50 gifts would be presented.

At that point, her sister, Mrs. Juanita Crawley of Granite City, and a friend, Mrs. Beulah Krause of Pontoon Beach, volunteered to help Mrs. Jones assemble 72 additional presents, "so everyone would receive a gift."

"We went around asking neighbors, friends and some business people for small amounts of cash or items until we had sufficient funds to purchase the necessary number of presents," she explained.

Mrs. Jones lives in a double-wide mobile home on Highway 111, not far from its intersection with Pontoon Road. Their house was destroyed by fire on Sept. 15, 1974.

They are the parents of three sons: Steve, 19, and John, 20, both of Granite City, and Rick, 27, of Lehigh Acres, Fla.; and a daughter, Miss Kathy Jones of St. Louis.

"I know that delivering the gifts will make a brighter Christmas for us and, hopefully, for the senior citizens in the nursing home."

Advantages of the past few years obviously are being laid aside and thoughts of helping many elderly and lonely people experience a happier Christmas are much in evidence throughout the Jones' family.

Buildings for a study and a recommendation as to what should be done with the building. Mayer Paul Schuler said he could see no particular objection to having an appraisal made.

Ronald Coleman, alderman of Ward Seven and the City Council's representative on the Granite City Public Library Board, told the alderman, in response to an inquiry by the mayor, that the library board has no intention of placing a branch library in the building.

"We looked into such a possibility some time ago," he said, "and learned that the cost of remodeling and renovation would be out of proportion to the value of the building as a branch library location."

Coleman noted that the idea of establishing a museum in the building was made by a citizen, but that no consideration of that suggestion materialized.

On a roll call vote, Whitmer's motion to have an appraisal made was approved 11 to 2, with Davies and Poulson casting the only dissenting votes.

The Nameoki fire station was vacated two weeks ago when fire equipment and firemen at the station moved to a new station at Richmond Avenue and Daley Road.

Madison's fast start sets stage for 73-49 win over Venice

An opening-quarter scoring spree by the Madison High School Trojans Monday night at St. Louis Kiel Auditorium proved too much for the Venice Red Devils to overcome during the annual cage clash between the two basketball powerhouses and Madison won 73-49.

Coach Larry Graham's Trojans led 23-8, 37-22 and 56-31 at the quarters. Venice scored 18 points to Madison's 17 in the final period but could not dent the big lead.

The Trojans hit 32 field goals on 62 attempts and Venice made 22 of 57.

At the foul line, Madison made nine of 20 tosses and the Red Devils five of 13.

Fouls were nearly equal — Madison 14 and Venice 13. Venice committed the most turnovers, 15-9.

Madison controlled the boards, 30-31, with Rodney Davis pulling down 14 and Randall Jones 13. Madison recovered 21 rebounds in the second half.

Frank Pace shared seven rebounds for Venice.

Madison's ability to capitalize on six early Venice turnovers while holding Venice scoreless for the first three minutes of the game proved decisive. Madison hit on 11 of 17 field goal opportunities in the first period and Venice four of 11.

First-quarter scoring for Madison was by Jones, with eight points, Rodney Cochrell six, Ron Williams five and Davis four.

Coach Graham interrupted Venice's rally by calling time out with 5:25 to play with the score 56-41.

Trojan Anthony King restored momentum with a 20-footer, followed by a seven-foot basket by James Heard.

King and Heard sparked the Madison defense when each stole Venice passes, but MHS failed to convert them into points.

Ricky Salmond took possession of the ball on a rebound recovery, shot one, pulled down his own rebound and then sank a 20-footer with 3:12 remaining.

Madison's Davis matched these points, tossing two foul shots through the net for a 62-43 lead.

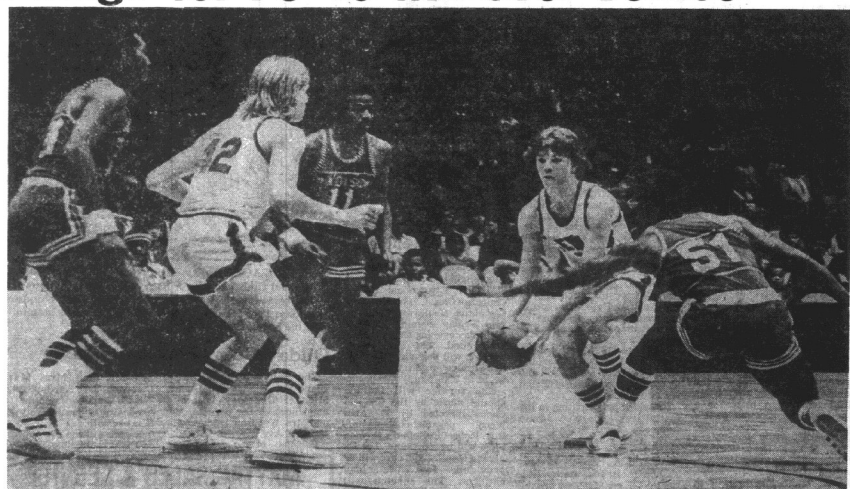

Venice's Pace and Madison's Jones twice swapped baskets, and Trojan Kenny Boyd put Madison ahead by 21 at 68-47 on two charity tosses when there were 59 seconds to play.

Red Devil Anthony Wise provided the final scoring for Venice with a basket with 46 seconds showing on the clock.

A technical foul gave Madison a free throw before Clayton Harris and Cochrell each hit for a goal during the last seven seconds of play.

Jones scored 18 points of Madison, Williams 12, Davis 11, Cochrell nine points, King eight, Harris six, Heard five and Eric Stanley and Boyd, two each.

Arnold topped Venice point-making with 14. Ron Salmond and Williams each scored 10. Ricky Salmond, seven, Pace six and Wise, two.

RED DEVIL BALL-HANDLING by guard Ed Fleig, second from right, as he begins a layup drive. James Heard (51) of Madison tries to stop the move as Clayton Harris, (left), also of Madison, Frank Pace (42) of Venice and Anthony King of the Trojans keep their eyes on the ball. The game was played in Kiel Auditorium preceding a St. Louis University game Monday night.

Granite City took a 2-0 first-period lead on goals from outside the blue line by Kenny Sabol and Paul Solberger. Both shots deflected off the defending goalkeeper's glove and went over his shoulder into the net.

John Krevovich added a third goal in the second period for the Granite City Bruins, but Alton closed the gap with two goals before the quarter ended.

Rich Foy of Granite City added a third-period goal.

League standings show O'Fallon with a 6-1 record, Granite City 5-2, Wood River 4-2, Alton 3-3, Metro 2-5 and Collinsville 0-7.

Flora defeats Devils

Despite playing without the services of their season-leading scorer, Venice High School's basketball Red Devils provided the host Flora Wolves with close competition Tuesday night in a contest won by Flora, 64-58.

Flora led 16-15, 35-31 and 45-40 at the quarters of the close contest.

Hampering the Red Devils effort also was the benching of Senior Larrick Arnold early in the second quarter due to a third foul call against the eager Arnold returned to action in the final period and ended the game with totals of 21 points and 15 rebounds.

The Red Devils made the game-opening basket but then trailed Flora for the remainder of the game.

Venice threatened to go ahead with only minutes left in the fourth period. Trailing 52-44, the Devils closed to within two points on three straight baskets by Arnold.

Flora responded with three

South in Kankakee tourney first time

GCHS South's Warrior cagers are among 16 high school quintets in the three-day 27th annual Kankakee holiday basketball tournament, which will be held in Abe Lincoln Gymnasium at Kankakee's Westview High School Dec. 27, 28 and 29.

Participating also are Oak Forest, Joliet East, Evergreen, Morris Bradley, Marian Catholic, Momence, Hinsdale South, Kankakee Eastridge, Naperville, Willowbrook, Waukegan West, Kankakee McNamara Catholic, Morris, Herscher and Westview.

Two of the schools entered are former titleholders of the tournament — Eastridge (1968) and Bradley (1969).

Last year's victor, McHenry, withdrew from the tourney after eight straight years of consecutive championships.

The first tournament champion back in 1950 was Hebron High, runnerup in 1951, took the crown on its championship in 1952 and went on to claim the Illinois state title that season.

Kankakee High made its first breakthrough for the title in 1952, and Morton of Cicero became the initial team to win consecutive championships by gaining a pair of titles in 1953-54.

Originally, the tournament had an eight-team field. It continued that format until being expanded to 16 teams in 1969.

It is now co-sponsored by Kankakee High's twin schools, Westview and Eastridge, which were created in 1965 through a division of the school district's enrollment.

In recent years, the tourney sponsors have attempted to make the field of contestants an equal blend of Kankakee area teams and the best available teams from other regions around the state.

First-round competition Monday, Dec. 27, at Kankakee consists of: Oak Forest vs. Naperville, 10:30 a.m.; Willowbrook 10:30 a.m.; Marian Catholic vs. Momence 12:30 p.m.; Morris vs. Hebron 2:30 p.m.; Evergreen Park vs. Bradley 4 p.m.; Waukegan West vs. McNamara 5:30 p.m.; Hinsdale South vs. Eastridge 7:30 p.m.; and GCHS South vs. Westview 9 p.m.

Southern Warriors are competing for the first time in this tournament.

Assumption is the only school entered that Madison has played thus far in regular season competition. MHS having defeated the Pioneers 69-63 on Dec. 15.

Pre-tournament seedings, determined by voting of coaches of the participating schools, reveal Mascoutah as the favorite to repeat as tournament winner.

Madison is seeded second, Mater Dei third and Springfield Griffin fourth.

First-round competition Monday pairs Okaville vs. O'Fallon 9 a.m., Springfield vs. Central of Breese 10:30 a.m., Waterloo High vs. Greenville 12:30 p.m., Madison vs. Taylorville 2:30 p.m., and Lewisville vs. Chatham 4:30 p.m.

Competition will resume Tuesday, Dec. 28, with eight games and again Wednesday, Dec. 29, with four contests.

A contest for consolation honors will be played at 1 p.m. Thursday, Dec. 30, and the tournament title contest will be played at 8 p.m. the same day.

Trojans return to Breese tournament

Five former championship teams of the Breese Mater Dei holiday tournament will return to compete for the title in this year's 16th annual four-day affair at Breese starting Monday, Dec. 27.

The five, among a field of 16 high schools to participate, are the Mascoutah Indians, Mater Dei Knights, Highland Bulldogs, East St. Louis Assumption, Pioneers, and Coach Larry Graham's Madison Trojans.

Madison earned back-to-back championships at Mater Dei (1966-67) and last competed there in the 1968 tournament, which saw Assumption claim the title. The Pioneers repeated the following year.

Host Mater Dei and Mascoutah have claimed more titles than any other past champions, three each.

The Knights won the initial eight-school tourney in 1961, and then in 1970 and 1973.

Mascoutah won in 1971, 1974 and last year.

Highland High claimed two consecutive titles, 1964 and 1965.

Winning one tournament title each were Trist (St. Jacob-Troy-Marine) in 1963, Cahokia in 1972 and Springfield Lanphier in 1962.

Devils to defend title at Freeburg

For the first time since the inauguration in 1965 of the Freeburg-Columbia holiday basketball tournament, the Venice Red Devils will not among the top-seeded teams considered favorites for this year's title.

First-round action at Freeburg High School begins Monday, and Red Devil partisans predict that the Venice team could surprise those who have downgraded its prospects.

Lebanon's Greyhounds are at the top of the seedling list with a 6-0 record, followed by Marissa 7-0, Livingston 6-1 and Jerseyville 5-3.

Southwestern Piassa is seeded fifth and New Athens sixth.

Venice, which has claimed the tournament championship nearly every year since its 1-4 record in 1968 and St. Paul of Highland in 1971.

Lebanon has advanced to the tourney's championship contest to meet Venice in each of the past three tournaments, only to have the Red Devils prevail.

Originally a 15-school tourney in which the top-seeded team received an opening-round bye, this year's 12th annual version has 16 schools entered.

They are: St. Paul of Highland, which beat Venice this season 90-69, Lebanon, Weclin of Trenton, Steelville, New Athens, Venice, Livingston, Columbia, Red Bud, Mount Olive, Marissa, Staunton, Piassa, Freeburg, Jerseyville and Gibault of Waterloo.

Following a 1976-77 season-opening loss to St. Paul of Highland, which beat Venice this year defeated East St. Louis Assumption 75-53 before losing three in a row, 75-73 to St. Louis Sumner, 73-49 to Madison Monday and 64-56 to Flora High on Tuesday night.

Overall, the Red Devils have put 137 field goals through the net and their opponents have scored 150 baskets.

From the free throw line, Venice has hit on 48 throws and opponents on 55. Venice has pulled down 171 rebounds this far.

Eleven Red Devils have combined for the team's 322 points earned in five games.

Heading the list is Larrick

Arnold, 6-0 senior, with 79 points.

Ron Salmond, 6-4 sophomore, had tallied 65; J. L. Williams, 5-9 junior, 58; Ricky Salmond, 5-11 junior, 36.

Ed Fleig, 5-9 junior, and Don Gardner, 6-0 freshman, 16 each; Frank Pace, 6-2 junior, and Anthony Wise, 5-9 sophomore, 14 each.

Rick Jones, 5-11 junior, four points.

Opening the four-day meet Monday will be St. Paul vs. Weclin at 9 a.m.; Lebanon vs. Steelville 10:30 a.m.; New Athens vs. Venice 1 p.m.; Livingston vs. Columbia 2:30 p.m.; Red Bud vs. Mount Olive 5 p.m.; Marissa vs. Staunton 6:30 p.m.; Piassa vs. Freeburg 8 p.m.; and Jerseyville vs. Gibault 9:30 p.m.

Illinoisans saddened by death of most powerful U.S. mayor

The sudden death Monday afternoon of Mayor Richard J. Daley of Chicago has caused shock waves across the state and nation.

In addition to heading the municipal government of a major city that had continued to function more efficiently than many crime-burdened and financially-beset metropolises, "His Honor" led Cook County Democrats and dominated the party at the state level. He was credited with playing a key role in the 1960 and 1976 Presidential elections on behalf of John F. Kennedy and Jimmy Carter.

Called "Boss" by both friends and foes, Mayor Daley was credited for presiding more than 21 years over an administration that built its strength on political patronage and all-around "clout."

Several key officers, including aldermen, were convicted and there were widespread complaints about abuses of the democratic process. Yet, he avoided any charges of personal misconduct and had gained such public support that his capture of a sixth term in 1975 was by an astonishing 77-23 per cent margin.

Ironically, both the primary and general election campaigns for Illinois in this year saw heavy emphasis on whether Secretary of State Michael Howlett would be overly receptive to the wishes of Mr. Daley.

With the mayor dying before the new gubernatorial term begins next month, the question would never have been answered even if a Daley friend had been elected. Governor-elect James Thompson, prosecutor of many Chicago area officials, and retiring Governor Daniel Walker no longer will be able to cite concerns over the possibility of one-man rule from the north.

In view of his insensitivity regarding certain aspects of individual rights, Mayor Daley was a man whom some critics could say they disliked—but few could voice deeper resentment. His Irish charm sustained him through many political and governmental ups and downs. And despite his immense power, he retained the common touch—an ability to talk on even terms with people of all walks of life.

Richard Daley will remain controversial—in death as in life—but the vacuum left by his passing indicates the giant stature he had achieved.

He will be remembered with friendship and admiration by many residents of this area who had become acquaintances. At the same time, they are hopeful that never again will an individual become so powerful. The fully democratic process is not always as orderly a governing method as some instances of political machine rule, but it has other important advantages.

Mrs. Elmore recognized by state as an outstanding parent

The Quad-City area is aglow with Christmas lights, cheer and warmth. Adding to the happiness of the season is this month's announcement that Mrs. Barbara Elmore, 3000 Cayuga St., has been named "outstanding parent of Illinois" by the Illinois Office of Education.

Vice-president of the Washington Elementary School Parent-Teacher Association, Mrs. Elmore during some weeks "works more hours for the school than paid employees," faculty members say.

They add, "As a parent whose concern is our educational system, as a mother, as a homemaker and as a citizen, she is a model of excellence."

She and her husband, Richard, have a daughter, Kristi, in Washington School and three Washington "graduates" now at other local schools—Paula, Ricky and Kathy.

Mrs. Elmore is viewed here and statewide as an inspiration to others in her efforts to bolster family life, school effectiveness and community betterment.

Holiday brightened by record shipping volume at local port

One of the best Christmas presents for a community is evidence that a greater degree of prosperity is being achieved. Helping provide such assurance this Christmas week is the announcement by Bulk Service Corporation and the Tri-City Regional Port District that Bulk Service handled a million tons of bulk products here in 1976.

The record figure represents a 50 per cent increase over 1975 tonnage. To achieve the new high, more than 12,000 rail cars were received during the year that is ending. The firm primarily handles grain mill products from Granite City, Decatur and Taylorville processing plants and soda ash from Wyoming.

Expansion of the present loading facilities and scheduled construction of a new Port District dry bulk terminal indicate the strong likelihood of even further growth in local shipping activity.

Caution for safe and happy holidays

To the Editor:

Readers, be positive. Don't become a statistic in the statistics of the holiday season this year. The accident and fatality rates seem to increase each year.

Be positive. Know and remember that alcohol and gasoline just do not mix. Often one is prone to forget his capacity or tolerance of alcohol, and then he may have "just one more" for the road. That's the one drink not needed.

Be Positive. Remember that alcohol when ingested almost immediately goes into the blood stream and then to the brain.

Then, like under an anesthetic, one's reactions, reasoning, judgment, vision and memory decrease.

Be physically and mentally alert at all times. Drive defensively. The other driver or the pedestrian doesn't want to become a statistic, either.

Be positive. You want a safe and happy holiday — give the same consideration to others. FERGUSON AVE. RESIDENT

Christmas is a time to relive memories of happiest moments

To the Editor:

Christmas is here again. Forget your troubles: It's time to be happy.

Rack your memory for your happiest moments. Live them over again. Happiness is a habit — let's cultivate it.

Christmas is the most sentimental time of the year, when all hearts are melted and opened. Greeting cards and gifts by the millions crowd the channels of trade and communications. Depressed hearts are lightened by Christmas good will and cheer.

For a short time, we revert to the simplicity and sincerity of childhood. If asked to interpret the true spirit of Christmas, I would call for the help of a little child. Christmas is not of the calendar. It is of the heart.

I believe that what the shepherds heard on Bethlehem's fields contains the cure for this mad, depressed world. Good will among men will bring the long-looked-for and hoped-for peace on earth. Hate and selfishness cannot take root in good will.

We are a lucky people. We Americans have all the good things of life. We all know that the first Christmas gift was God's only-begotten Son. But it was not until 300 years later that the followers of Christ began to celebrate Christmas, and to attach to the wonderful day some of the pagan ideas and customs.

They made wreaths of mistletoe and holly. Mistletoe is associated with Christmas as a symbol of giving. The Danes have a tradition that holly leaves were a part of the crown of the crucified Lord.

The present custom of sending Christmas cards is but the continued habit of the people who made trips to the temple shrine where the remains of the three wise men lay. They there would write their Christmas expressions.

The story of the Christmas tree relates that a small spruce tree stood near a large oak tree. The large tree said, "You are so small you are of no use." The little tree looked up and wept, its tears hardening into clear round drops which we call gum. The next day, a little boy chopped it down, took it home with him and called it his Christmas tree. Ever since, little folks have liked the little spruce tree.

The Yule log tradition includes the cutting, trimming and placing on the fire. From the remaining sparks, the next year's log was lighted. In this manner, good luck and good fortune were carried from year to year. After an imaginary journey back in the Holy Land, visualize Mary seeking shelter in a cave, hiding from the soldiers of Herod. While she and her babe are sheltered by the great rocks, a spider spins its web over the entrance to the cave and the soldiers of the king are persuaded to move on. The next day, Mary journeys farther. As she passes a wheat field, she drops a coin which had been given to her. Immediately, another wheat field springs forth into ripened grain. Pursuing soldiers inquire if any fugitives had passed that way. A man replies, "Not since the field was sown," and again the soldiers go on their way. There are so many beautiful legends that linger in the mind at Christmas time — the greatest of all days — the birthday of our Christ. IVAN F. HARRISON 2562 Cleveland Blvd.

St. Francis

Francis of Assisi, who lived more than 700 years ago, left a simple prayer that sounds as if it were written for the Twentieth Century.

Although his father was a wealthy merchant, Francis renounced his fortune and gave himself in service to the poor. Born in the tiny village of Assisi, Italy, he loved wildlife and the out-of-doors. He called animals "his brothers and sisters," and wrote of "brother sun" and "sister moon" in his Canticle of the Sun.

And now for his prayer, which has blessed so many readers down through the centuries:

Lord, make me an instrument of thy peace:
Where there is hatred, let me sow love;
Where there is injury, pardon;
Where there is doubt, faith;
Where there is despair, hope;
Where there is darkness, light; and
Where there is sadness, joy.
Divine Master,
Grant that I may not so much seek to be
Consoled as to console;
To be understood as to understand;
To be loved as to love;
For it is in giving that we receive;
It is in pardoning that we are pardoned;
And it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.

St. Francis didn't dress for success. He usually wore a single brown tunic of coarse woolen cloth. But he prayed for success, in that he asked God to use him to bless others. And is there any other kind of lasting success?

St. Elizabeth parish program

The Sunday School children of St. Elizabeth's parish explained the true meaning of Christmas Sunday morning with a story and presentation on a stage strewn with straw and lambs sitting beside a manger. Mary and Joseph cradled the baby Jesus as little angels set around singing "Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer" and "Little Drummer Boy."

Soon three wise men clad in kingly robes arrived to pay homage to the baby Jesus. Eight angels then appeared carrying red and green felt letters with the message "Joy to All" as a poem was read. Angelic voices sang the song "Joy to the World."

Three shepherds came to see the baby Jesus while the angels brought two other messages. "Christmas" and "Love" were the glad tidings the angels presented. The songs "Oh, How I Love Jesus" and "Silent Night" concluded the program.

The two three-year old children participating in the program were Mike Montgomery, Chris Michaels, Chris Votoupal, David Mills, Eric Czerniejewski, Lynn Velling, Rodney Ashun, Jason Ellis, Jackie Bauer and Rodney Almos, Carrie Kromby, Sharon Kozjak, Julia Miskel, Donna Holland.
